ANNUAL CONCLAVE

OF THE GRAND COMMANDERY OF KENTUCKY WILL CONVEENE IN THIS CITY NEXT MONTH.

THE PLUMED KNIGHTS ARE COMING FROM ALL PARTS OF THE STATE.

A CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE GRAND BODY.

On the 18th of next month the Grand Commandery of Kentucky, Knights Templar, will hold its fifty-seventh annual convocation in this city, and the outlook at present is for a very successful meeting. It was here that this grand body was organized, the 5th of October, 1847, by the representatives of five Commanderies, viz.: Louisville, Webb, of Lexington, Versailles, Frankfort and Montgomery, of Mt. Sterling.

At this meeting the following officers were elected:

Henry Wingate, Grand Commander.
Nathaniel Hardy, Deputy Grand Commander.
Joseph A. Peters, Grand Generalissimo.
John F. Leavy, Grand Captain General.
James H. Turner, Grand Senior Warden.
Jacob Owen, Grand Junior Warden.
Solomon K. Grant, Grand Prelate.
Thos. C. O'Rear, Grand Treasurer.
Philip Swigert, Grand Recorder.
Isaac Cunningham, Grand Standard Bearer.
John McCracken, Grand Sword Bearer.
Thomas U. Kinkaid, Grand Warder.
Daniel Epperson, Grand Captain of the Guard.
Of these Sir Knights Wingate, Swigert and Epperson were members of Frankfort Commandery.

HENRY WINGATE, FIRST G. C.

Sir Knight Wingate was one of the most prominent Masons of his day, was Master of Hiram Lodge for fourteen years, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky in 1843, Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter in 1828, and Grand Master of the Grand Council in 1830. The five years following his service as Grand Commander, he served as Grand Prelate and was Prelate of Frankfort Commandery from the date of its organization, in 1846, to the time of his death, October 4, 1862. Tall and dignified in appearance, he taught and enforced the principles of Masonry by precept and example. For many years he was clerk in the Branch Bank of Kentucky.

PHILIP SWIGERT, GRAND RECORDER.

Sir Knight Philip Swigert was also prominent in the order, was Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge for twenty-one years, and its Grand Master in 1858. He was also Grand Secretary of the Grand Chapter forty-nine years, being first elected in 1822, and re-elected every year until his death in 1871. He was small of stature, but full of energy, even in the last years of his life his step being as light as a Heart Trouble Baffled Doctors.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine Cured Me.

There is nothing more necessary to health than sleep and rest. If these are denied you, if you rise in the morning more tired than when you went to bed, there is an affection of the nerves plainly present. If your heart is weak, or there is an inherited tendency in that direction, your weakened nerves will soon so affect your heart's action as to bring on serious, chronic trouble. Dr. Miles' Nervine is a nerve tonic, which quiets the nerves, so that sleep may come, and it quickly restores the weakened nerves to health and strength. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is a great blood and heart tonic which regulates the action of the heart, enriches the blood and improves the circulation.

"Some time ago I was suffering severely with heart trouble. At times my heart would seem to stop beating and at others it would beat loudly and very fast. Three to four hours sleep each night in ten months was all I could get. One week in last September I never closed my eyes. I got Dr. Miles' Nervine and Heart Cure at a drug store in Lawrenceburg, after spending $300.00 in medicines and doctors in Louisville, Shelbyville, Frankfort, Cincinnati and Lawrenceburg, and in three days have derived more benefit from the use of your remedies than I got from all the doctors and their medicines. I think everybody ought to know of the marvelous power contained in your remedies."—W. H. HUGHES, Fox Creek, Ky.

boy's. For many years he was Circuit Court Clerk of this county.

Sir Knight Daniel Epperson was, for many years Tyler for all of the Masonic bodies in this city, and many a candidate, while waiting to be advanced, has been helped over the rough places by this kindly knight. Small of stature and bent with years, when we first knew him, he was a carpenter by trade and owned the property where the J. E. M. Milling Co.'s office now is and where the elevator, recently burned, stood. He died in 1875 and was buried in the yard of his home on Campbell street.

The conclaves of the Grand Commandery were held here in 1848, 1849, 1851-2-3 and 4, 1859, 1872, 1885 and 1891, but no member of Frankfort Commandery reached the Grand Commander's chair until 1877, when Sir Knight Jacob Swigert was elevated to that position, his election occurring at Carlisle. He was a soldier in the 22d Kentucky Infantry, Gen. D. W. Lindsey's regiment, entering the service as a private and coming out as a Captain. But who does not remember this noble son of Frankfort, whose hearty laugh was good for the blues, and who was every one's friend. We laid him in the "City Upon the Hill" a little more than a year ago, he having died, as he lived, a brave and true Knight of the Temple.

JAMES M. SAFFELL, P. G. C.

Sir Knight James M. Saffell was the next member of Frankfort Commandery to enter the line of Grand officers, and was elected Grand Commander at the convocation held in this city in 1885. He is at present in business in this city.

J. W. PRUETT, P. G. C.

Sir Knight John W. Pruett, the forty-fourth Grand Commander, was elected in this city in 1891. He is at present a resident of Louisville, but has so recently left us that we can hardly realize that he is not still of us. No more beautiful work was ever executed in an asylum than that which he was wont to do, and he had few equals as a Commander.

JUDGE JAS. E. CANTRILL, P. G. C.

Sir Knight James E. Cantrill, while not a Frankfort man, is so well known here that we can almost claim him. He was Grand Commander in 1882, and granted a dispensation enabling Frankfort Commandery to confer the orders out of time upon the present Grand Commander, that he might attend the convocation of that year at Covington.

SAM. H. STONE, P. G. C.

Sir Knight Sam. H. Stone, who was Grand Commander in 1895-'6, was a familiar figure upon our streets five years ago, when he was State Auditor. Although a resident of Louisville now, he is a frequent visitor here and will be prominent among those who will attend the convocation next month.

GOOD FARM FOR SALE.

A farm containing 174 acres of good land, well situated, with plenty of water, both pond, well and springs—well in the yard; about 15 acres of woodland; brick house of seven rooms, with cellar and garret, is offered for sale at a bargain. The farm is located near Farmdale and adjoining the lands of Mr. J. P. Hostetter and Mr. George Green. For terms apply at this office.
